Recent Remarks from friends in the Valley hosting the Durocher Family

"We just loved your and our people did too... looking forward to having you back in 2011"
Punjo and Lucy Reed, Chicken House Oprey.

The Durocher's are a great family family band and they really know what it takes to put it all together. You will not be disappointed - I highly recommend them." Lance Link, Link Family.

"The Durocher's were very well received here at Bibleville and a very talented family." Mary Lou Leazar, Bibleville Conference Center and RV Park.

"Our people loved the Durocher's! We had a packed crowd, a fun evening, and we've scheduled them back three times now. It was really a special evening!" Sandy Rye, Lakewood RV Park

"The Durocher Family was a pleasure to have at our place. They arrived on time, were very professional, organized, provided excellent publicity materials, and most importantly put on a great evening of spontaneous entertainment. Their program was fresh, humorous, and musically excellent. Folks were very impressed. We are looking forward to having them back."
Kenwood RV Resort, Linda Activities Director.

We drew a great crowd for our Sunday morning service with the Durocher family. Paul led an inspiring service and the kids are very talented musicians. This is an exceptional family. They are a real asset and we are definitely going to have them back any time they are in the Valley. Pastor Dwayne at Koenig Winter Resort

"We were delightfully surprised with the Durocher Family here at Quiet Village II. It was very touching seeing the whole family singing and playing together. Their family is quite amazing. People here are still talking about it and they are welcome back here any time."
Marge Reshely, Quiet Village II

"The Durocher's are the real thing! What a pleasure having them at our church."
Pastor Daryl Miller, Maranatha Baptist Church, Mission Texas.
